

WAR WORKS PARTNERS WITH SCHMEISSER GMBH

CONROE, TX: War Works is proud to be the exclusive distributor of Schmeisser GmB products.

Schmeisser's namesake and founder, Hugo Schmeisser, is the son of Louis Schmeisser, one of the best known weapon designers of the 19th century. Following in his father's footsteps, Hugo Schmeisser's legacy is to military rifles and submachine guns in Germany what John Browning's is to handguns and machine guns in the US. Schmeisser products are designed and manufactured with precise German engineering and the highest quality materials.

"We're excited to partner with War Works and introduce our products to the U.S market," says Andreas Schumacher, owner of Schmeisser Germany. "We're confident that Americans will appreciate the quality craftsmanship and precision of our new pistol, the Schmeisser SLP-9, our premium AR-15 parts, and our exceptional weapon care products."

"At War Works, we bring to market the highest quality products in the defense and shooting sports industry. Each manufacturer we partner with meets our highest standards in product quality and customer service and receive the War Works Approved™ seal". Chris Sadler, War Works CEO, states. "Every Schmeisser firearm part is produced within the strictest German engineering standards. We are proud to partner with Schmeisser as the exclusive U.S. distributor and offer these fine crafted products to our customers."

Schmeisser firearms products, including their new SLP-9 pistol, will be available through dealers, retailers nationwide.
